

Figure 1 A piece of 1" long dielectric is inserted into an elliptic cavity and the the amount the modes shift to lower frequency w.r.t. "no dielectric inserted" depends on whether it is placed on a node or an anti-node. (Measured by H. Wang)